IT HAS BEEN THE HOTTEST IN TWENTY-FIVE YEARS, HE SAYS, AND THE REPUBLICAN MA-

night gave out the following statement:

The campaign in Maine, which closes to-morrow night, has been the most important and the most vigorously fought campaign since 1860. It is well to keep in mind what has occurred in Maine in the way of Republican majorities, including 1860 and since, in order to more properly appreciate the result of the election on Monday next. In 1860 the Republican party in the September election received a majority of 18680; in 1864 its majority was 19,180. In 1808; was 19,316. In 1876 it was 19,316. In 1876 it was 19,316. In 1876 it was 15,444. In 1880 the State went against the Republican party by a majority of 185. In 1884, under the stimulus of the great leadership of James G. Blaine, the Republican party reached high-water mark, and gave a majority of 19,815. In 1888 its majority was 18,053. In 1892 its majority was 12,503.

Thus it will be seen that we have never in any Presidential year at the September election given 20,000 majority, and if we exceed that imajority on Monday next it will be an unprecedented victory. It is true that two years ago the Republican majority was 38,000, but in that election the Democratic party made no campaign, and only 50 per cent of its vote was cast. It is a campaign which, in many respects, will become a memorable one in this State. The pemocratic party has been thoroughly organized. Immediately after the second Democratic convention, which placed in nomination Mr. Frank, the Democratic State Committee completed its organization, and went to work in a thorough and systematic manner. They have made a canvass in every county in the State, and they have had a corps of speakers, have made a canvass in every county in the State, and they have had a corps of speakers, having had some seven hundred speeches de-livered. They have sent out their campaign livered. They have sent out their campaign literature in great quantities, and have made every effort that it was possible tomake. What-ever the result on Election Day, it will not be a result obtained by default of action of the Democratic State Committee.

Democratic state commence.

The Republicans have never concealed the fact that they were making the most earnest and systematic and thorough organization that was systematic and thorough organization that was in their power to make. They have fought this contest from the first to the last upon the theory that it needed every Republican vote; that one vote might decide the contest. They have placed all the speakers they could command upon the stump. They have circulated all the documents and newspapers that were possible to send to every inhabitant of the State, and they have just completed the most thorough and systematic canvass that has been made in the State during the last twenty-five years.

made in the State during the last twenty-five years.

The people thoroughly understand the issue. State issues have been absolutely ignored, because, as a matter of fact, we have no State issues, which is the highest compliment that can be paid to the Republican administration of State affairs. The contest has been fought entirely upon National issues.

If it is a pleasant day the Republicans expect to throw $0.000 votes on Monday next. The combined opposition cannot throw 60.000, and the Republican majority which Governor Powers will receive over Mr. Frank will be the largest Republican majority ever given a candidate for Governor in a Presidential year. It is impossible to say just how many votes Mr. Clifford will receive, but he will not receive as many as he would have received were his name upon the official ballot. It not being there, every one who votes for him will have to write his name upon the ballot. Neither can it be stated with accuracy how many Democrats will abstain from voting, but two facts stand out clearly as the result of our last canvass: First, we shall throw the largest Republican vote ever thrown second, we shall give the largest ma-clearly as the result of our last canvass: First, we shall throw the largest Republican vote ever thrown; second, we shall give the largest majority ever given in a Presidential year.

Our meetings have been unprecedented in their size, and in the interest displayed, and we have had upon the stump a corps of speakers which cannot be excelled in the United States. So far as the organization of the Republican party is concerned, it completes its labors to-morrow with great satisfaction and awaits the result on Monday next with perfect confidence and pride.

TO WORK IN BRYAN'S STATE.

MR. WEBSTER HAS SOME INTERESTING OBJECT-LESSONS TO EXHIBIT.

Washington, Sept. 11 (Special).-Among the callers at the Republican headquarters has been John R. Webster, a bright lawyer of Omaha, Neb., and a warm friend of Secretary Mercer, of the Omaha district, who is a candidate for re-election, Mr. will take an active part in the campaign. He will udiences that free silver would not be a panacea Bryan and his followers and partisans. Mr. tions to the collection of coins which he will use in there lessons. Taking Mexico as a fair example of a silver-standard country, he draws from his pure-Mexican doubloon, coined in 1869, and then worth $16, it is worth the same to-day. This gold coin is exactly the size of the present Mexican silver doilar, sixteen of which in 1869, if coined, would have been worth a little more than one doubloon, while to-day it would take thirty-two Mexican silver dollars to buy one Mexican doubloon. One of the most interesting objects in the collection is a Swedish coin ten inches square, haif an inch thick and six and a half pounds in weight. Mr. Webster does not carry this in his pocket. It is a copper coin of the time of Charles XII. The Swedes were bent on putting full market value in their coins, and made their money of copper bere unable to obtain a sufficient supply of gold and silver. They had to increase the amount of copper in a single coin until it weighed amount of copper in a single coin until it weighed as much as fourteen pounds. But they stamped a small piece of copper with a dollar stamp and sent it into circulation. Disastrous results followed, prices went up, and in a short time the people showed their impatience of the scheme by beheading hieron De Gortz, who was the inventor and advocate of this money.

An object-lesson from England, which Mr. Webster shows, is from the time of James II. These are crowns and half-crowns of bronze. The same coins were originally of silver, but James decreed that they should be struck from bronze and still have the same value. Severe penalties were prescribed for persons who refused to received them. Notwith-standing this, the coins falled to circulate as money and disappeared after the Battle of the Boyne. Mr. Webster has a score of similar object-lessons from which, coupled with researches in history, he draws the conclusion that the effect of debasing the currency has always resulted disastrously and has have been the cause of prosperity. He cites a number of examples from Greece and Rome, and from England, and later history to substantiate his statements.

MONTANA REPUBLICANS.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 11.-The straight Republicans held a convention this morning and nominated three McKinley and Hobart electors and O. F. Goddard, of Billings, for Congress. The silver Republicans nominated Charles A. Hartman for Congress and indorsed Bryan and Sewall electors.

The Republican State Convention last night nominated the following ticket: For Governor, A. C. Bot-kin: Lieutenant-Governor, P. R. Dolman: Secretary of State, L. Rotwitt, Treasurer, C. M. Webster: Auditor, A. L. Love: Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. B. Hendricks, Associate Justice Supreme Court, P. H. Grubb.

The resolutions indorse the St. Louis platform, save as to the financial plank. Under agreement the silver men went out of the Convention and to-day held an independent one, nominating Presidential electors and Congressman. The gold wing took the same course. The probability is there will be two State Committees, one representing the gold wing and the other the silver wing.

There is a certain difficulty in arguing the issue of this campaign—the question of free silver. It is always difficult to make an elaborate argument about the eighth commandment. When a man quotes, "Thou shalt not steal," and another promptly replies by asking, "Why not?" really the best answer is to again repeat the commandment. If a man cannot at the first glance see that it is equally as immoral and vicious to repudiate debts as it is to steal, it becomes quite a hopeless task to try to convince him by the most elaborate arguments.

There is much in the question of finance that is debts as it is to steal, it becomes quite a hopeiess task to try to convince him by the most elaborate arguments.

There is much in the question of finance that is very complicated. There is much which only those statesmen and those students who have made a special study of the question are competent to deal with. The underlying facts, however, are all very simple. If a man will take the trouble to think he will see at once that the great element in our financial system is the element of credit. Let me illustrate this by a very homely example. The other day I was speaking to one of our detectives about the fact that many of the big pickpockets seemed to prefer to work on the East and West sides of the city rather than in Fifth-ave, and Broadway, and he answered this by saying that a great many of the wealthy people rarely carried anything but small check-books in their pockets. They paid for everything they bought by check—that is, by credit. On the other hand, many of the women going to market on the East and West women going to market on the East and West sides carried with them in their dress pockets the money they had saved from their husband's wages; the workingmen coming home on Saturday night had their entire week's wages in their pockets. In other words, it was these men and the women who had the cash, and it was the rich men who had the credit.

had their entire week's wages in their pockets. In other words, it was these men and the women who had the cash, and it was the rich men who had the credit.

Now, the Populists in their platform, on which Mr. Bryan stands just as squarely as he does on the Chicago platform, declared that there was not enough money in the country and demanded enough money to give each citizen $50. Mr. Bryan's bemocratic platform demands free sliver upon the ground (an entirely false ground by-the-way) that it would double the amount of money in circulation. Do not they see that it is not so much what a man has actually in his possession as what his credit is, what his collateral is, that counts? The merchant with the check-book has perhaps less of the $50 in cash that the Populist demands than has that the one has an unlimited amount of credit; although he has no money, he has the collateral.

No change in the colnage laws is going to alter this fundamental fact that if we had free silver the workingman would not have any more money than he has now. No Populistic statesman has been able to point out exactly how the $50 he demands would get into each man's pocket. On the contrary, the workingman, if he had free silver, would morely have the same number of dollars as he has now, worth about half as much.

The things that give the wealthy man his credit, that is, his store, his factory, his land or whatever he owns, would still be his. Then, doubtless, there would be depression, and he would not have as much credit as he now has. He would not be able to buy as much as he did before from the farmer and the manufacturer, and he would not be able to buy as much as he did before from the farmer and the manufacturer, and he would not be able to buy as much as he did before from the farmer and the manufacturer, and he would not be able to buy as much as he did before from the farmer and the manufacturer, and he would not be able to buy as much as he did before from the farmer and the manufacturer, and he would rot be able to pay as much

THE OUTLOOK IN CALIFORNIA.

Washington, Sept. 11 (Special),-"I think it prefty Washington, Sept. II (Special).—I links it pretty certain that California will give its electoral vote to McKinley, although the contest is apt to be close," said Henry L. Scott, of San Francisco, at the Arlington to-day. Mr. Scott is associated with his brother Irving M. Scott in the management of the Union Iron Works, which have been turning out some good specimens of naval architecture of late years, "California has a habit," he con-tinued, laughingly, "of voting for the wrong man for President, and it may be on this account that it were better to hope that Bryan will win, although there is not much reason to believe it. Our people are greatly interested in the tariff, and that is the great secret of McKinley's popularity. The decline in the prices of their fruits has made the owners of vineyards long for a reste ration of McKinley duties. A DYNAMITE OUTRAGE.

Wilkesbarre, Penn., Sept. 11.-Early this morning a loud report startled the town of Bloomsburg and the residents rushed out of doors, fearing an earthquake. It was seen that the whole front of the handsome house of Levi Waller, one of the wealthlest and most prominent men of the town, had been blown in by dynamite. The porch was blown off and the front wall demolished. All the windows were smashed into fragments by the concussions. The family were asleep at the time and were severely shaken by the shock. It is feared that Mrs. Waller may not recover from the fright. No motive is known for the outrage, and the identity of the miscreants is not known.

HEADQUARTERS.

INV TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. Washington, Sept. 11.-The troubles of the Pope ratic managers in Washington continue to thicken. While there is apparent harmony on the surface, there is jealousy underneath, and the Democratic and Populist chairmen are watching each other with sleepless vigilance and open suspicion. The entire combination already seems to be honeycombed with distrust to a degree which threatens a collaps before election day. As a cynical Democrat said to day: "Instead of fusion, we are finding confusion almost everywhere, and unless somebody muzzles 'Tom' Watson soon, confusion will presently become But who shall undertake the task of muzzling the Popocratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency, who is "running wild" in the West and threatening to "smash things"? He has already disarranged some the plans laid with much toll and anxiety by the managers. Chairman Butler is at his wits' end and doesn't know what to say or do about Watson, except to give formal notification to him that he was National Convention some six weeks ago. But Wat-son knew that long ago, and the official notification will not be likely to surprise or placate him. If any candidate for an office ever worked hard to obtain formal and official notice of his nomination, Watson has done so, and he realizes the fact. Of course, Chairman Butler does not feel that he can afford either to chide or criticise the Vice-Presi-dential candidate of his party, who, at last accounts, was gayly smashing the political crockery in the Kansas Populist china shop. But there are other Populist leaders who feel that they can and dare do so. One of them is Populist ex-Congressman Money League. The meeting was opened with the singing of several Republican National and State with Senator Butler at the latter's headquarcampaign songs by the Diamond Quartet. The ters to-day, where the news that another Popusongs divided the honors between Major McKinley list State convention had been called in Kansas had just been received. The news caused con-siderable surprise and some excitement among the managers, who had fondly believed that the fusion arranged some time ago after a great deal of fusion arranged some time ago after a great deal of trouble would stand.

Chairman Butler and Mr. Harris differed somewhat in their opinions about the situation in Kansas and the calling of a new convention. The latter said: "This latest movement in Kansas is engineered by a lot of disgruntled men, and will not amount to anything. The same set tried to get up an opposition teket in 1894, but did not succeed. Whenever they cannot have their own way they take a few matches and sulphur and start a factory of their own. Of course, such a movement temporarily checks enthusiasm and might do a little harm." "How about the course of Candidate Watson." "I am free to say that Mr. Watson is making a mistake persenally and is hurting his party. The Western people and the Western Populsus are determined that Bryan shall be elected, and they do not want anything like discord brought in their ranks. I also want to say that all combination with gold standard Democrats and Republicans on electoral tickets or Congressmen is absolute destruction to the party. It is an abandonment of every principle of the party, and will result, if it is done, in ruin."

SENATOR JONES HERE.

HE WANTED TO SEE MR, HILL, BUT DIDN'T -THE POPOCRATIC CAMPAIGN. Senator James K. Jones, the chairman of the Democratic National Committee, came back to this city yesterday morning and made himself as comfortable as possible in rooms at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He expected to have an interview with Senator Hill, but Senator Hill had gone out of the city, apparently with the desire to avoid such an sultation with Mr. Jones regarding the coming reception which Tammany will give to Mr. Bryan. Senator Charles J. Faulkner, the chairman of th Democratic Congressional Committee; General A. J. Warner, of Ohio; James Oliver, William Sulzer, Elliot Danforth, and other Bryan Democrats talked with Senator Jones at intervals all day, William P. St. John, the treasurer of the Democratic National Committee, also had a short interview with Senator Jones. In explanation of his failure to have an interview with Senator Hill, Senator Jones I sent a telegram to Senator Hill at Albany on Wednesday asking for an interview with him, but understand that Senator Hill was not in Albany then and that my telegram was not delivered to im. I have received no reply from him."

As to his purpose in coming to this city at this time, Senator Jones said: "I wanted to talk with Democratic leaders in this State as to the action to falo, and to confer about the organization that is to have charge of the campaign in the State. The National Committee probably will have no headquarters here, and we shall let the State organization manage the campaign in the State, but we want to give all ald possible. I shall remain here until noon to-morrow, when I shall go to Washington, and I shall be glad to meet as many of the New-York Democratic leaders as possible. Senator Jones said that there was no truth in the manner in which Mr. St. John was to be superseded as report that Mr. St. John was to be superseded as report that Mr. St. John has handled the malieged funds of the committee, is satisfied with the manner in which Mr. St. John has handled the manner in which Mr. e taken at the coming State Convention in Buf-

Ex-Sheriff "Jimmy" O'Brien was one of the Democratic statesmen who consulted with Senator Jones at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last evening. Mr. O'Brien was supposed to be keeping an eye on the treasury over which Mr. St. John presides, and Senator Jones has taken care to let the local politicians know that the treasury is nearly empty. William Sulzer was with Senator Jones all the evening, and there were a few other politicians in consultation with them. At a late hour last night Jones said that he had received no word from Hill and he had not heard from Hinkley. In respect to the statement of Mr. Watson and other Populists that Mr. Sewall would have to get off the ticket, Senator Jones said: "Mr. Sewall will not withdraw."

Senator Jones said to newspaper men: "I hope a man will be nominated at Buffalo who will help Bryan and Sewall in the State."

"Do you want a silver man nominated?" he was asked.

"I want a good Democrat nominated," was his reply.
The local Democratic politicians were saying that Sulzer was working hard to secure the influence of Jones in the hope of getting the nomination for Governor at the Buffalo Convention, but that Elliot Dunforth was likely to get ahead of the Honorable William. orable William.

Mr. Jones will leave this city to-day and go to Laurel, Md., where he has an engagement to meet Senator Gorman in the evening.

BRYAN STARTS OUT AGAIN.

NOW, HE SAYS, THERE IS NO LONGER ANY "ENEMY'S COUNTRY."

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 11.-William J. Bryan left Lincoln to-night at 9:15 o'clock over the Missour Pacific road for another month of campaigning. He will reach Kansas City at 6:30 to-morrow morning, and proceed on the Wabash to St. Louis, where he is scheduled to make four addresses to-morrov Mr. Bryan made a brief speech from the rear car at the station. He said:

Ladies and gentlemen: I don't know whether I shall return to Nebraska again just before the election or not, but I go away from Nebraska feeling that it is not necessary. (Cheers.) I want to say to you, my frieads, that from the reports which I have been receiving I do not believe there is a single county in the State that the Republicans are sure of carrying this fail. (Cheers.) And more than that, every day finds our cause stronger throughout the Union than it was the day before. Every day finds persons who are declaring for free coinage, and I think I am safe in saying that you will not find among all your acquaintances a man who one month ago was in favor of free coinage at 18 to 1, and able to give a reason for it who has changed his mind. A little over a month ago I went into what I then called the "enemy's country," but I found down there just as much enthusiasm as there is in Nebraska. (Great cheers.) Today some parts of the country are more friendly than others, but there is no enemy's country. (Loud cheering.)

luding New-Bedford, Brockton, Waltham, Malden, Medford and Cambridge. Sandwich elected two gold delegates and Concord two gold delegates and two silver men, while all other delegations to the State Convention were either positively in-structed for, or are known to favor, the Chicago candidates and George Fred Williams for Governor. WATSON JEERS AT SEWALL,

Eric, Kan., Sept. II.-Thomas E. Watson, Vice-

Presidential candidate on the Populist ticket, spoke here yesterday to an audience of 2,000 people. He began by reviewing the history of the People's lixth Assembly District, gave notice yesterday that party from its inception, saying that the West and South, the great agricultural sections of the country, had joined hands in the great work of secur-ing the rights of the people. Then he made an appeal to voters to stand by the Populist party until the corporations had all been doomed. Referring to Sewall's candidacy, he was exceedingly bitter, saying:

"I will come off the ticket when my boy gets out "I will come off the ticket when my boy gets out and makes speeches against me as Sewall's boy is making speeches against him. A man who cannot carry his own family carries no political strength. Our people would not consent to my coming off the ticket. The surest way to defeat Bryan is to disrupt the silver forces, and the way to do that is for me to be driven off the ticket; but I say that I am not here to be run off the ticket. I would not take an electoral vote that should not be given to Bryan, too."

GEORGIA GOLD DEMOCRATS ORGANIZING.

A STATE CONVENTION TO BE HELD IN ATLANTA ON SEPTEMBER 23.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 11 (Special) .- A State convention to organize the National Democratic party in Georgia will be held fh Atlanta on September 23. The official call has been prepared and will be issued to-morrow. Delay has been caused by the necessity of sending it to various committeemen for signature. The committee is composed of five of the most prominent Democrats in the State: W. M Hammond, of Thomasville; Dr. Eben Hillyer, of Rome; T. B. Jones, of Valdosta; Colonel H. H. Perry, of Gainesville, and Jefferson Randolph Anderson, of Savannah. Sentiment among the Na-tional Democrats continues to grow in favor of tional Democrats continues to grow in favor of nominating candidates for Congress. There are indications that this will be done in the 1st, 1Id and Vth districts. Colonel H. H. Perry, of Gainesville, is already making a canvass of the 1Xth District. He spoke yesterday at Lawrenceville, and his speech was received with marked manifestations of approval. With the National Democrats organizing, formidably, the Republicans showing greater strength than ever before, and the Populists carrying off their votes in droves, the Popocratic managers in Georgia are in a state of mind bordering on panic.

MARYLAND GOLD DEMOCRATS.

THEY RESOLVE TO PLACE A PALMER ELECTORAL TICKET IN THE FIELD.

Baltimore, Sept. 11 (Special) .- A State organization of the National Democratic party in Maryland was effected to-day and a decision was finally reached to place a Palmer electoral ticket in the field. John J. Donaldson was elected chairman of the organization, and the vice-presidents chosen in-clude ex-United States Senator Whyte and Colonel Charles Marshall, Treasurer O. A. Kirkland and Secretary Lee Bonsal. This committee of 100 comprises many of the leading Democrats in the State. A big meeting to ratify the Indianapolis nominations will soon be held. Secretary Carlisle, Senator Gray, of Delaware; Bourke Cockran and ex-Senator Whyte will be invited to make addresses.

The State Committee has not yet decided in what manner it will be best to place the electors in the field. It may be done by a convention or by petition. If may be done by a convention of systems, it is decided to name them by petition, action will have to be delayed until after a portion of the vote in the city and counties is registered for it must be certified that the 500 requisite signers are all registered voters, and this cannot be done until after they have registered under the new election law.

BISSELL WILL SUPPORT PALMER.

Buffalo, Sept. 11.-Replying to-day to a question as to his attitude toward the Chicago ticket and plat-form and the Indianapolis ticket and platform, William S. Bissell, the Buffalo Democrat who was for over two years Postmaster-General during the present administration of President Cleveland, made the following reply:

"I am opposed to the election of Mr. Bryan be cause he advocates the free coinage of silver and cause he advocates the free coinage of silver and represents Populism and other wild and dangerous theories. I am a Democrat because I believe in Democratic principles. General Palmer is the only candidate in the field who represents Democratic principles, of which sound money is a very important one. Hence I shall support him."

SENATOR HILL AND OTHER DEMOCRATIC POLS

TICIANS WILL BE IN THE CONVENTION CITY TO-DAY. Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 11 .- "The Enquirer" this evening says: "Probably the first to arrive of the big Democratic politicians will be the men who are believed to be opposed to the indorsement of the Chicago ticket and platform. Several of these will arrive in Buffalo to-morrow, so that they may meet and confer with the leaders from various quarters of the State as they come in. Overshadowing all the others is Senator Hill. He is expected to ar-rive before dusk to-morrow night. He will be quartered at the Iroquois Hotel, where the State Committee has twenty rooms.

"Senator Hill's closest adviser, National Commit-teeman W. F. Sheenan, will come up with Senator Hill. So will Major J. W. Hinkley, of Poughkeep-sie, who is seirman of the Democratic State Committee. Charles R. Defreest, secretary of the State Board of Railroad Commissioners and secretary of the State Committee, will also be here to-morrow to see that the final arrangements for the Convention are all made.
"Hill, Sheehan and Hinkley are all against Bryan.

There is no doubt of that. When Mr. Sheehan sees that the Convention is bound to swallow the platform he will resign his office as National Commit-form he will resign his office as National Committeeman. The place will be filled by the State Committee, Chairman Hinkley will also get out of the party organization. He will resign his place as chairman of the State Committee and as a member of his own county committee.

"As the Convention will not meet till Wednesday there is plenty of time for conferences. If the big guns get here to-morrow, they will have four days and nights for conference before the Convention meets for its first session. A great many arrivals are expected Sunday, Tammany Hall's 1,500 men will not arrive until Monday night, but some of the leaders will come on ahead. John C. Sheehan, who rules Tammany Hall as chairman of the Finance Committee, will get here Sunday some time."
